

EV Chargers Compliance Statement

If you are purchasing or being quoted for an EV charger from BEW Electrical Distributors Ltd, please read the following statement:

The EV charger invoiced/quoted on your document comes with its own independent statement of compliance from the respective manufacturer. This details the EV charger's compliance with the following:

Electric Vehicles (Smart Charge Points) Regulations 2021; from June 2022

As a reseller of these products, BEW Electrical Distributors Ltd can confirm that it has not changed this product in any way. The manufacturers statement of compliance is adequate.

Please ask a member of staff at your local branch for further details.
